DISCLAIMER
 The materials provided here are used at one's own risk; injuries do occur while skating. By providing these materials, InLine Club of Boston (ICB) and the authors make no implicit or explicit guarantee that you will not be injured while skating at these or any other locations. Skaters should wear appropriate protective equipment including a helmet at all times and should have developed plans for what to do in the event they suddenly need to obtain medical assistance.

We have attempted to indicate known caution areas on the map. These are subjective as conditions can change and nearly anything can be hazardous to a skater on open roads.

The ICB makes no guarantees that the information provided herein is accurate or current. If you know of any discrepancies, please notify us so that we may correct them.
